

10. Rally Show Santa Domenica
22. – 24. November 2019., Sveta Nedelja-Savršćak-Samobor
PRESS RELEASE NO. 2

There's only 15 days away from the 10th edition of Santa Domenica's Rally Show. Although competitor entries are still ongoing, the number of entries is skyrocketing! Traditionally, the list of lightning-fast applications is populated by big motorsports names, exceptional cars, but also some new names of young speed enthusiasts who have chosen the Santa Domenica Rally to enter the world of the queen of motorsports, with often slightly weaker but not less attractive cars. The arrival of Gerald Rigler, who is coming from Austria with the Hyundai i20 WRC prepared by HMI - Italian Rally Team, is also worth mentioning.

The Provisional Application List will be officially released on Thursday, November 14, 2019, and until then, enjoy the surprises it brings us. What RSSD brings is a gravel treat that will crown the rally season in Croatia in a spectacular way. Although it is to be expected that numerous drivers will take the opportunity to have fun in this race, it is, in fact, an extraordinary ground for combat that is rarely seen, because everyone wants to win RSSD gravel.

To recall, this three-day event begins on Friday, November 22, 2019, with an RSSD party in a catering tent in the Service Park on Savršćak where competitors, organizers, and visitors will gather from 9:00 pm.

On Saturday, November 23, after the technical inspection and verification for the competitors at 14:00 on the Savršćak near Samobor, the official driver training begins. At 7:00 pm at Ante Starcevic Square in Sveta Nedelja, the selection of starting positions will follow and from 19:30 the ceremonial start as the official start of the competition. All participants of the rally will be presented along with the commemorative program.

On Sunday, November 24, from 8:00 at the start in Savršćak in the Samobor area, an adrenaline show awaits you, led by the best drivers from all over Europe. During the day, there will be four speed exams (1 BI at 8:00 AM, 2 BI at 10:00 AM, 3 BI at 12:30 and 4 BI at 14:30), and at the very end at 5:00 PM closing ceremony and prize giving.

The entry list is still open, the gravel is ready, and the 10th Rally Show Santa Domenica is waiting for you!
